

POLITICS IN CALIFORNIA.

"What's the matter with Jones as Chief of the Horticultural Bureau?"

Chorus all over the State:

"Absolute ass."

"Old back number."

"Blasted fool."

"Well, let's try Smith."

Chorus as before:

"No good."

"Renegade."

"Bigamist."

"Refugee."

"Well boys, how would Brown suit you?"

"Alien."

"Perjurer."

"Ex-murderer."

"Kept an assignation house."

"Well, how would Shorb do?"

"Down with him."

"What for? Anything against him?"

"Oh yes; he was forinst the perjurers, bigamists and fools we wanted."

The Carson Dredger.

A lot of New Yorkers are in Dayton now inspecting the Rea dredger. The Enterprise says: A gentleman named Bennetts of Denver, Colorado, contracted to set up the machine and make it work for the sum of $20,000. He failed to set it up, but trusted to workmen here. He remains, therefore, liable for any defect in the workings of the apparatus. He is a man of means and experience, having a similar amalgamating machine at work in Colorado, the motive power being electricity. He has guaranteed to save everything except the sulphurets, securing 85 per cent. of the matter passed through the machine. Among the gentlemen behind the Carson river dredging enterprise are some of the foremost citizens and capitalists of New York, assuring an honest effort at success, and they risk only their own cash.

Before long there will be practical tests of the machine and the stock is advancing in New York.

The Bishop Whittaker School for Girls.

The Bishop Whittaker School for Girls at Reno begins the 16th year on September two. This school has been doing excellent work for the girls of Nevada for all these years, and still continues to do so. It is no small point in its excellence that it furnishes the best of homes for the children sent to it. The instruction is superior, the location healthful and the home-like surroundings of the school make it a desirable place for those who wish to send their daughters from home. Mrs. B. F. Layton from Virginia city will succeed Miss Quaille in the musical department; the other teachers who have been at the school the past two years remain at their work. Miss Louise Sissa or Mrs. Layton will answer any questions with reference to the school, and catalogues can be had on application to Miss Meguire, at Reno.

The Austin Advocate wants to know what has become of all the jackrabbits that infested the county a few years ago. If the Advocate will wait a year or two it will again see jackrabbits as numerous as ever. Three times since the settlement of Nevada by the whites the central and eastern parts of the State have been over turned by the pest. The principle cause of their disappearance is the large grub worm developed from the egg of an insect deposited in the back of the rabbit, which old hunters say kill them by thousands.—Journal.

The California boodle case shows that there were eight Senators in the "combine" and that they expected $720 a piece every time they voted the way Burns wanted them to. But they will beat Faylor by simply swearing against him. Eight to one will knock anybody out of Court.
